

www.ezadivat.net

Style: electronic jazz – funk – soul

The band Ez a Divat (Translates as This is Fashion) was one of the first, Hungarian bands experimenting with mixing electronic music and jazz.

After appearing on several compilation CDs, their first long player From the Head to the Feet was released in 2006, which made Ez a divat a decent cult band in the country.

On the band's 2nd album, Hello from the Neitherlands you'll find a heavier funk influence, shorter but more danceable songs. Their 2009 was even praised by the biggest names such as Kid Loco.

Ez a divat's latest release We Felt so Mixed up in the Neitherlands is a full length remix LP featuring the remixes of Hello from Neitherlands from such internationally acclaimed artists from all over Europe as Flevans, Lack of Afro, Badboe and Jon Kennedy

This year the band keeps on playing live on stage both in Hungary and abroad.

Free downloads available at: www.budabeats.com

Musicans

Bene János – drums
Gál Dániel – keyboards
Kiss Árpád – trumpet

Kovács Ádám – sax
Lakinger József – bass
Vörös Nikolett – lead vocal

Management

MediaEvent Kft., Hungary – Viszt Viktor, managing director viktor.viszt@mediaevent.hu

